Camp News

The fifth weekend was held at Elm River Campground. There were 9 rigs in attendance + 3 seasonal.

It was a great to have the younger folk visit. We had 2 young ladies Leen Vranckx (Belguim) and Paula Gorozpe (Mexico) they are exchange students staying with the Joneses. Also, little miss Nadia Illsley visited with her Grandparents Wilma & Laurie Illsley.

On Saturday, we had our Poker Run/Walk. There were 35 participants, all had a fun time. The winner was Ed Mills with a flush, $80.00. Anne did the running so Ed won $40.00. The second prize was won by Ruth Henry with a straight, $55.00. The third prize was won by Laurie Illsley, 2 pair, $30.00. The worst hand was won or lost by Tim Taylor 10 high $15.00 in coin.

We were sorry to hear that Ralph was in hospital; but he wanted to wait until Monday but his doctor and Barb said no. So, Laurie stepped up to save the day. Thank you so much Laurie.

Our good sports Clyde and Betty Tanner could not make it. Clyde had a medical emergency and ended up having open heart surgery on Sunday. They did send everything that we needed for the weekend. Please get better soon, Clyde, you are both missed.

Please see the list attached for the Thanksgiving supper next at the next campout. I would like to thank Diane Boudreau for organizing this list.
